Detention Division Deputy of the Year 2019

Deputy First Class Lindsey Thomas

The Washington County Detention Center is pleased to announce the selection of Deputy First Class Lindsey Thomas as the Deputy of the Year for 2019. DFC Thomas has been employed with the Sheriff's Office since March 9, 2015 and is assigned to the 1600-2400 shift where she received an early promotion in rank.

In addition to the regularly assigned duties, DFC Thomas has also been tasked with being a Field Training Officer (FTO), a Hearing Officer for inmate Misconduct Hearings, being firearms qualified and assisting with transports as well as recruitment at hiring events.

DFC Thomas brings a work ethic and dedication to the Sheriff's Office each day that provides an example for all deputies, not just for those that she provides Field Training. She conducts herself in a professional manner with both the inmate population and the general public at all times.

DFC Lindsey Thomas' demeanor, professionalism, willingness to help and dedication to the Sheriff's Office that she brings to work each day make her deserving of this year's Deputy of the Year award.
