

JOHN A. OLSZEWSKI, JR.
County Executive

GAIL M. WATTS, Director
Department of Corrections

Baltimore County Department of Corrections Employee of the Year 2020

I am pleased to announce Office Coordinator Kenya Savoy as our 2020 Employee of the Year. Ms. Savoy began her employment with the Baltimore County Department of Corrections as an Office Assistant on September 26, 2005. Through hard work and perseverance, she was promoted to Office Coordinator for our Building Operations Unit on September 20, 2008.

Our Employee of the Year, Ms. Savoy is applauded for her outstanding performance, commitment and dedication. Not only has she been exceptional in her regularly assigned duties in the Building Operations Unit, Ms. Savoy has taken on additional duties in the Financial Operations Unit and performed remarkably.

Ms. Savoy is a true team player and asset to the Building Operations Unit and the Finance Unit. She saw a necessity during the Department's transition period and stepped in to assist without hesitation. Ms. Savoy's initiative to take the time needed to learn what needed to be done is remarkable and her skill set in both units is impressive.

Ms. Savoy exhibits the traits of productive, motivated, and committed, and her admirable work ethic has had a major impact on the Department's daily operation. In addition to her abundant duties and responsibilities before and during the COVID-19 pandemic, Ms. Savoy has volunteered to assist with the Department's Morale Committee. She also recently volunteered to represent the Department and County on a State level board at the Governor's Office to work on the Coordinating Council for Juvenile Services and Educational Programs.

Please join me in congratulating Ms. Kenya Savoy as our 2020 Employee of the Year.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading "G. M. Watts", is written over a horizontal line. Below the line, the name "Gail M. Watts" and the title "Director" are printed in black text.

Gail M. Watts
Director