Washington County Sheriff's Office

Detention Division Deputy of the Year 2020

Deputy Jack Bennett

The year of 2020 was challenging for all and every employee in the Washington County Sheriff's Office – Detention Division faced these challenges working as a team to overcome them. The employees went far above and beyond any normal expectation and it would be great to be able to name them all as Employees of the Year for the efforts.

The MCAA Employee / Officer of the Year award does not lend itself to that type of mass recognition. Therefore, the Washington County Sheriff's Office - Detention Division is pleased to announce the selection of Deputy Jack Bennett as the Deputy of the Year for 2020. Deputy Bennett has been employed with the Sheriff's Office since July 16, 2018 and is assigned to the 1600-2400 shift.

In addition to the regularly assigned duties, Deputy Bennett has also recently volunteered for, been selected as one of the C.E.R.T members and has completed the necessary training for the position. Deputy Bennett is always seeking out extra duties and responsibilities having also been trained in the functions and supervision of the Work Release / Home Detention Programs.

Deputy Bennett brings a positive attitude to work each day, displays exemplary behaviors and is willing to mentor co-workers and assist his shift commander with anything needing done. He is dedicated to the agency, the mission, his supervisors and co-workers as well.

Deputy Bennett brings a work ethic and dedication to the Sheriff's Office each day that provides an example for all deputies to emulate. He conducts himself in a professional manner with both the inmate population and the general public at all times. The commitment to the Sheriff's Office mission that he brings to work each day make him deserving of this year's Deputy of the Year award.
