SENIOR SERGEANT DANIEL L. GILPIN ALLEGANY COUNTY DETENTION CENTER

SUPERVISOR OF THE YEAR 2020

It is our honor to acknowledge Senior Sergeant Daniel L. Gilpin as the Allegany County Detention Center Supervisor of the Year 2020. Senior Sergeant Gilpin is a 20-year correctional veteran serving the Allegany County Sheriff's Office and citizens since January 16, 2001. He is currently assigned to the 0800-1600 shift as a shift supervisor. He serves on the Intelligence Unit and as the facility's video visiting liaison and monitor.

Senior Sergeant Gilpin is one of the rare and unique career individuals who recognize the importance of the badge and uniform as a symbol of public faith. He has utilized his entire career as an opportunity to elevate the field of Corrections as a true profession and honorable occupational choice. He has served with pride and dignity and is a model representative of our Agency. On and off duty, Senior Sergeant Gilpin displays the highest degree of work ethics and personal moral integrity.

Senior Sergeant Gilpin trains both new and seasoned staff, keeping them up to date on changes to laws, current correctional cases and new gang intelligence. His number one priority is security and smooth facility operations. He is exceptionally thorough in his efforts in this regard, both with formal instruction and on-the-job mentoring. He is the lead Ethics Instructor and has an enormous interest in teaching anything that will assist our staff become better employees.

During the on-set of COVID Senior Sergeant Gilpin remained calm and made every attempt to ease the stress of everyone, staff and inmates. He supported all of the facility's operational changes, acknowledging and explaining the importance of the changes, and routinely makes suggestions for ways to make the facility operations run smoothly, efficiently and safely.

Senior Sergeant Gilpin is one of the top leaders at our facility. With great care and concern for his peers, subordinates, and facility operations, he is a stand out employee second to none. Congratulations Senior Sergeant Gilpin on this well-deserved recognition! Allegany County Detention Center is a better place because of him!
