

JOHN A. OLSZEWSKI JR.
County Executive

GAIL M. WATTS
Department of Corrections

Baltimore County Department of Corrections
Employee of the Year 2019

It gives me great pleasure to announce that Mrs. Treshonda Chatmon has been selected as our 2019 Employee of the Year. Mrs. Chatmon began her career with the Baltimore County Department of Corrections on July 10, 1995, as a Correctional Officer. After 12 years of hard work and dedicated service, she was subsequently promoted to the rank of Correctional Sergeant on September 10, 2007.

In October 2017, Mrs. Chatmon switched career paths and became a Correctional Program Specialist in our Alternative Sentencing Program Unit. As a Correctional Program Specialist, Mrs. Chatmon has demonstrated a commitment to provide exceptional, high quality case management services to our Alternative Sentencing population.

Mrs. Chatmon efficiently maintains an immense caseload and works collaboratively with the court system, treatment services, re-entry agencies and the offenders. Despite the overwhelming amount of work that she has to do, Mrs. Chatmon consistently finds ways to assist her co-workers. She has served as a mentor for several employees since her employment. Her willingness to assist others and her reliability is unequalled.

Mrs. Chatmon has shown skill in taking charge during stressful situations. She is known for her kindness and is a dependable employee who brings great enthusiasm to her duties. Mrs. Chatmon has served as a member of the Department's Morale Committee, is a current member of the 2020 US Census Coordinating Committee and a Duly Authorized Inspector with the Maryland Commission on Correctional Standards. She is a true asset to the Department, and one who sets the example and inspires others.

Please join me in congratulating Mrs. Treshonda Chatmon for being selected as the Baltimore County Department of Corrections, 2019 Employee of the Year.

By Order Of:

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. M. Watts", is written over a horizontal line. Below the line, the name "Gail M. Watts" and the title "Director" are printed in a standard font.