Joseph H. Hughes, Director
Director of Corrections

Dorchester County Department of Corrections
Correctional Officer of the Year

Sgt. Arthur Nelson

Sgt. Arthur Nelson started his career with the Dorchester County Department of Corrections in July of 2013. Sgt. Nelson has been nominated by his coworkers, supervisor and senior staff members for his excellent job performance, professionalism, his positive attitude and respectful demeanor. Sgt. Nelson has just recently promoted to Sergeant/ Shift Supervisor. He is a crucial member of the gang intelligence unit here at DDC and works with the local police agencies.

Mr. Nelson comes to work ready to take the floor and do whatever is asked of him to fulfill the needs of the facility. He teaches his shift to be team players and instill integrity into everything they do. He is looked up to by the younger officers and is always willing to help them succeed.

I am extremely proud to accept the nomination of Sergeant Arthur Nelson for the Dorchester County Department of Corrections Officer of the Year. It is my honor to submit his name to the Maryland Correctional Administrator's Association for recognition.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Joseph Hughes".

Joseph Hughes, Director
Dorchester County Department of Corrections
