

SENIOR DEPUTY FIRST CLASS RICHARD CLAYTON

Senior Deputy First Class Richard Clayton is a seven year veteran of the Cecil County Detention Center. Since his date of hire, S/DFC Clayton has been trained and assigned to the Transport Team, Duty Desk, and is currently a member of the facility's Correctional Response Team. His keen eye for detail has resulted in numerous controlled dangerous substance finds. S/DFC Clayton is a dedicated and loyal Correctional Officer who is always willing to help other Officers. He is a very effective Field Training Officer and a great mentor and coach for the newer staff members. S/DFC Clayton's imposing stature has been beneficial during many hostile inmate situations.

Being assigned to a permanent day shift, S/DFC Clayton has been a vital part in taking on multiple roles and ensures that all tasks are done to the best of his ability. He arranges transports and completes the daily dockets with no issues. This is a large undertaking requiring attention to detail while maintaining a safe and secure environment.

S/DFC Clayton has maintained perfect attendance throughout the year which speaks volumes for his dependability as an Officer. S/DFC Clayton is a professional, hardworking, and trustworthy Correctional Officer who sets a high performance standard for other Officers to emulate in our facility.

For these reasons, S/DFC Richard Clayton is hereby recognized as the Correctional Officer of the Year for 2019.

Please join me in congratulating S/DFC Clayton for receiving this honor!

"2019 Cecil County Detention Center Employee of the Year"

Scott A. Adams
Sheriff

Major Mary B. Allen, Director
Cecil County Detention Center