

Lieutenant Richard Beard

Police and Correctional Training Commissions (PCTC)

Lieutenant Beard is the epitome of professionalism, dependability and a cooperative spirit. He consistently holds himself, the instructors, and the students of the Correctional Entry Level Training Program to the highest of standards. When given a task, he finds a solution that meets all the needs and expectations. He is an innovative thinker. Lieutenant Beard offers support for staff, often times offering realistic and workable solutions to their problems. His attitude, disposition, and approachability are exemplary. Lieutenant Beard treats each student with respect, honesty and fairness at all times. He always models the highest standards of professionalism and service. He is a positive role model for recruits, instructors, and other staff within the training facility.