QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

Correctional Officer of the Year 2019

Senior Correctional Officer II Wesley Crabtree

The Queen Anne's County Department of Corrections has selected Senior Correctional Officer II Wesley Crabtree as our agency's Officer of the Year.

Senior Correctional Officer Crabtree has proven to be one of our most reliable corrections staff persons and has worked with the Department since September 2006. He was assigned to our day shift as the Home Detention Coordinator and recently has been assigned to our Pretrial Release program. His coworkers report that he is a team player, very dedicated to the Department and staff, self motivated and is willing to perform any task required of him. He is also described as being very reliable, conducts himself in a professional manner and a great asset.

Senior Correctional Officer Crabtree is very outgoing and enthusiastic with his assigned duties, displaying thoroughness in performing his Pretrial Release interviews with assigned individuals prior to their bail review process. He still performs his duties as a Correctional Officer as well when needed.

We are proud of Wes' professionalism and commitment to his duties. We look forward to his continued achievements in our Department now and in the future.
