Correctional Officer First Class Andy Hernandez

CFC Hernandez is currently assigned to the Training Unit as the Training Coordinator. CFC Hernandez helped organize and instructed annual firearms qualifications and in-service training for all security shifts, administrators and civilians. Numerous emails were received from staff commending CFC Hernandez for his clear, methodical and patient instruction during Defensive Tactics training. He also assisted with certifying the entire Detention Center in CPR/First Aid. A total of 128 officers received the training over 6 different training dates. CFC Hernandez did an outstanding job at maximizing training during in-service using the limited space.

CFC Hernandez is certified as a Defensive Tactics Instructor, Taser Instructor, C.P.R. Instructor, Firearms Instructor, Simunition Instructor, Use of Force Instructor, Cooper Law Enforcement Physical Fitness Instructor, and is a certified Sig Sauer and Remington Armorer. He takes pride in training others and is always attending trainings to further his professional development. More importantly, he always brings back and shares new techniques, information and methods with his fellow officers to improve their efficiency, safety and overall training experience.

CFC Hernandez's insight, dedication, flexibility and passion to pass down his knowledge to others clearly shows while he is instructing, volunteering to assist others and during his daily duties at the Training Coordinator. He maintains a humble, respectful demeanor and comes to work every day with a great attitude.

CFC Hernandez is an asset to the Frederick County Sheriff's Office - Corrections Bureau and is well deserving of receiving this year's Maryland Correctional Administrator's Association "Correctional Officer of the Year" award.
